

Fairhill Partners Annual Report—2013

Fairhill Partners connects people to opportunities for lifelong learning, intergenerational relationships, and successful aging in many ways:

“Fairhill has given me the opportunity to restart and start new. When I found myself homeless, I didn’t know a place like this existed and there was such help out there. When you find yourself needing help when you haven’t before, you often feel like you are begging and a nuisance, but I haven’t felt that way here. I hope this program continues for others in similar situations.” - SGH participant.

“Everyone wins - the professional gets to educate the community in a casual meeting setting, and caregivers get to ask questions they might not be able to ask otherwise,” - Meet the Professionals volunteer.

“This group helped me learn different ways to deal with issues I had with my diabetes.” - Diabetes Self Management participant.

“My friend suggested that I join the caregiver and kinship support group. That was the best thing that I could have done,.” - Kinship grandmother.

“CATCH directly relates to kids’ increased knowledge about making a choice on food, whether it’s high in nutrition or not,.” - CATCH Healthy Habits volunteer

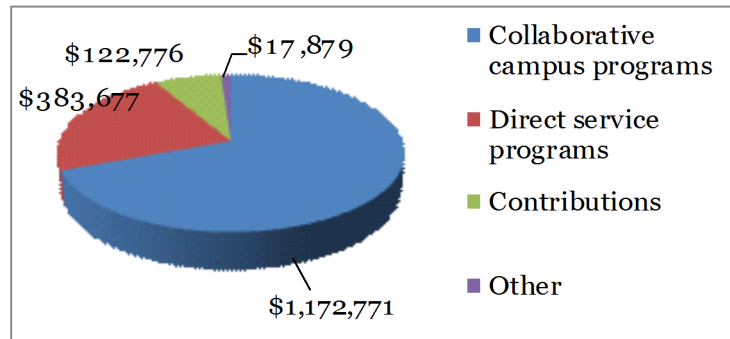

Fairhill Partners is a nonprofit corporation recognized under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Fairhill depends on gifts, grants and contributions as a critical source of funding for its programs and services.

In 2013, unrestricted revenue came in at $1,836,643, down from $1,975,802 the previous year, and total net assets increased from $3,938,034 at year end 2012 to $3,986,714 at year end 2013.

Thanks to the prudent allocation of financial and volunteer contributions, $1.68 million or 89 percent of our expenses went to providing a collaborative campus, and social, health, research, and educational services for older adults and intergenerational groups. Invested net capital additions to the property and equipment totaled $709,390. In addition, unpaid staff donated services with an estimated value of $547,634.

2013 Income

Unrestricted revenue total $1,836,643.

2013 Expenses

Expense total $1,889,368.

2013 Audit: Wortzman & Gingerich Company