

Computers On Wheels Tutor

Summary

The Computers On Wheels (COW) Tutor is a mission critical, technical and program support position responsible for providing in-home instruction of basic computer skills to homebound individuals. This position reports to the Director of the School for Caregivers at Fairhill Partners.

- Provides in-home instruction of basic computer skills, internet navigation and email usage to homebound individuals. Each participant receives a maximum of three 1 hour tutorial sessions.
- Highly flexible hours.
- Training provided.
- Opportunity to help people connect to the world through the use of a computer!

Qualifications

- Basic computer skills required;
- Criminal background check will be conducted;
- Must have transportation;
- Experience working with intergenerational populations and/or older adults preferred.
- Friendly and patient with good communications skills;
- Professional appearance, attire and demeanor.