

What is a Kinship Family?

Grandparents or other relatives in kinship families provide fulltime care and love for children separated from their parents.

Who and what is the Coalition?

The Kinship Care Service Provider Coalition, founded in 2001 by Fairhill Center with support from the St. Ann Foundation, connects organizations and professionals who offer support to kinship caregivers with opportunities to strengthen the kin families they serve.

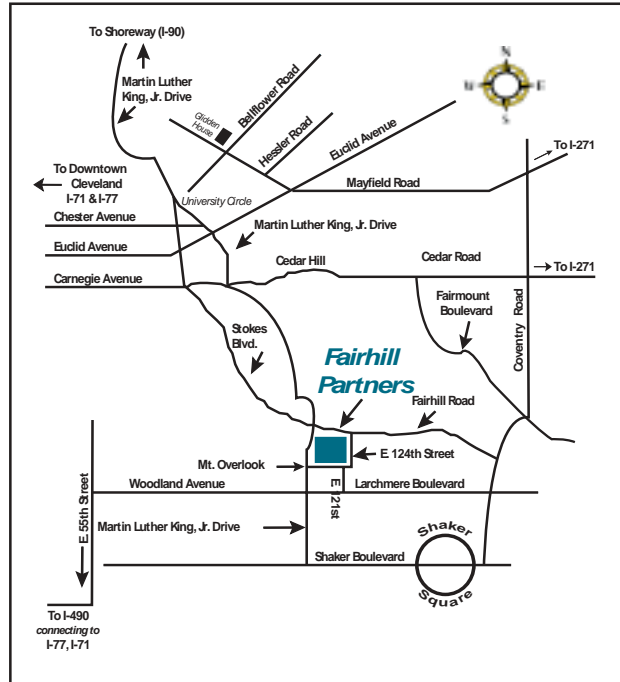

Members of the Coalition share resources, information and knowledge on:

- Counseling / Mental Health Services
- General Information & Referral Services
- Housing
- Support Groups
- Teen Programs
- Educational Programs
- Navigator Services
- Legal Services
- Respite Services
- Kinship Adoption
- Health and Social Services
- Employment
- Advocacy Opportunities

and stay connected with:

- monthly meetings
- Bi-weekly e-mail Kinship care updates
